

Social Safety for Students

What to do when you feel unsafe

We want you - WUR students - to be assured of a positive and safe environment for your studies. This infographic shows you who to contact for advice, support, or to report incidents.

We are here to support you!
Click for more info.

Confidential Counsellor - You experienced undesirable behaviour from a fellow student or WUR employee. - You need advice, support, or want to submit a formal complaint.	Confidential Contact Persons All WUR study- and student (sports)associations have confidential contact persons to whom you can turn.	Ombudsperson - You want to address structural problems or injustices affecting a group of people. - You are looking for impartial advice, referral, investigation, or mediation.	Confidential Counsellor Scientific Integrity - You suspect a possible breach of scientific integrity. - You seek advice or want to submit a complaint.	General Practioner You have concerns or complaints about your health.	Student Psychologist You need help because a social unsafe situation is affecting your mental health.
Emergency In case of a criminal offense, report this to the police - In case of an emergency: call 112 - Other cases: call 0900 – 8844 or go to politie.nl		Suicide Prevention Are you thinking of suicide? Call 0800-0113 or chat via 113.nl		External Support Sexual Violence – centrumseksueelgeweld.nl Domestic Violence – veiligthuisgm.nl Discrimination – discriminatieoost.nl Addiction – iriszorg.nl		 Social Safety Contact Point For a listening ear, initial advice & referral. Tel: 0317-481774 Mail: socialsafety@wur.nl